PROGRAM: Mission Trip to Malawi, Janet Scott speaker. The previously scheduled program on Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI) will be presented during a future meeting.

PRESIDENT'S REMARKS: "Thanks to Nancy Crawford and Ginger Potter for helping with "Spooky Boo at the Manor". The children were all in costume and, of course, Rhonda Sullivan did a spectacular job of decorating the Manor. And she made a wonderful Miss Piggy!

If you have poinsettia orders that you have not placed, please do so as soon as possible with Janet Scott. Thanks.

I hope to see all of us together for our next meeting to hear Janet Scott speak of her recent mission trip to Malawi. What an opportunity for Janet, and she is going to share her pictures and tell of the people she met and the work that they did. A short business meeting will also be held".

- Lizz Scott, President

Editor's Note – Thanks also to Lizz Scott for helping with "Spooky Boo at the Manor".
